

You are probably like the man in this picture. Your eyes are turned away from the immense storehouse of wealth which has always been available to you. You stand outside the store window looking at the good things of life, but you are convinced they are not for you. Now if you will turn around, you will find the source of supply with which you can secure all good things instantly available to you. In the Realm of the invisible Spirit of God is untold wealth, untold power, and untold intelligence. THIS IS ALL FOR YOU IF YOU WANT IT.
